Table of Contents

For	reword
	The second postwar period. The constitution as a project for a new society	11
	I. The knot of constituent power
1. 2. 3· 4·	The post-sovereign constituent power The procedural conception of the constitution Exhaustion of constituent power? The people as a revolutionary ruler	21 30 35 38
	II. THE CRISIS OF THE VOLUNTARY CONCEPTION OF THE CONSTITUENT POWER (AND, CONSEQUENTLY, OF THE CONSTITUTION)	43
	III. The judges' constitution
1. 2. 3·	Guardian of the constitution, interpretation and constitutional revision The struggle for constitutional interpretation Birth and development of the basic struc- ture doctrine	6 ₅ 73

IV. TOWARDS A GLOBAL CONSTITUTIONAL LAW?

1.	The supranational dimension of rights as a factor of constitutional disruption	143
2.	The institutions of global law and their fruits	154
3.	Private entities as public authorities in the	-
	global arena	164
		•
Bibliografia		171
	0 ,	•
Abstract		200
1103	araci	409