

INDEX

	page
Davide Strazzari
Law, religious teaching and civic/citizenship education in today's Europe: some introductory comparative remarks on the shift from multiculturalism to interculturalism.....	1
PART I
HARMONISING TRENDS IN THE EUROPEAN LANDSCAPE
Silvio Ferrari
Religious education in public schools: problems, trends and perspectives in the European Union countries	49
Roberta Medda-Windischer
Civic and citizenship education, common values and religious education: meanings, criticisms, and reflections	61
PART II
NATIONAL EXPERIENCES OF RELIGIOUS TEACHING AND CIVIC/CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION
Blandine Chelini-Pont
Religious teaching, teaching on religious matters, moral and civic teaching: a French millefeuille with no intercultural purpose.....	85
Ulrike Haider-Quercia
The Austrian model of pluralistic religious education	107
Leni Franken
Recent shifts in Belgian religious education policy: conforming to European Recommendations?	139

INDEX

	page
Eugenia Relañó Pastor
Teaching about religions and education for citizenship in Spain: a long confrontational issue	167
Ilaria Valenzi
Is the Italian religious education model sustainable? Analyzing the Italian model through recent bottom-up approaches.....	203
Niels Valdemar Vinding
Confessionally Christian for political purposes? The Danish case of right-wing political co-option of teaching on religion for anti-Islamic purposes.....	229
Kyriaki Topidi
Religious diversity governance and education in modern Britain: the model, its impact and its implications for social cohesion	263
Anna Parrilli
Laiklik, religious education and minority rights: the role of Islam and the resilience of the millet system in Turkish schools	285

PART III DEBATED ISSUES

Rossella Bottoni
Training and selection of teachers of religious education in European public schools: the perspective of intercultural dialogue....	313
Claudia Bianca Ceffa
Sex education, religious pluralism and interculturalism: a proposal.....	345
Cinzia Piciocchi
The “right to a sandwich” in school canteens: the Italian case.....	367
Note on contributors	381