

Table of contents

13	FOREWORD
	Marco Armiero
17	INTRODUCTION
	Chiara Carolina Donelli, Francesca Pangallo, Olga Tzazadaki
	SECTION I: Tracing Waste in Tourist Destinations
35	1. RESHAPING WASTELANDS: CONTEMPORARY REPRESENTATIONS AND ACCOUNTS FROM THE VENETIAN LAGOON
	Francesca Pangallo
36	1.1 Introduction: what is a “wasteland” and how it applies to present scenarios
37	1.1.1 Wasteland as a literary landscape
39	1.1.2 Wasteland as an artistic laboratory
41	1.1.3 Wasteland as a place of relationships and indi- vidual crisis
45	1.2 The city of unique, wasteful experiences
47	1.2.1 Waste collection: tourist or local business?
51	1.2.2 Wasteland as utopia
52	1.3 The collapse of an artificial ecosystem
56	1.3.1 Lagoon Wastelands as science fiction
59	1.4 Conclusions: Venice’s far/near future
64	References

69	2. PRACTICES OF CULTURAL EXTRACTION AND NOTIONS OF AUTHENTICITY IN SUSTAINABLE TOURISM: ROLLATE IN SAPPADA AND SALTNER IN MERANO Linda Armano
70	2.1 Introduction
72	2.2 Methodology and findings
90	2.3 Conclusions
91	References
93	3. AN ENTANGLEMENT OF ART, ECOLOGY, AND SOCIAL STRUGGLES: PORTO MARGHERA AS DIALECTICAL IMAGE Marco Baravalle
94	3.1 The unsustainable continuity of industrial and tourist paradigms in Venice
97	3.2 Refusal of work. Social struggles and the formation of the Veneto model
103	3.3 Art + workers. Assemblage and intervention in Porto Marghera
112	3.4 Nostalgia VS Subjectivity. Marghera as a dialectical image
116	References
119	4. THE SOCIAL ROLE OF MUSEUMS IN VENICE AND VICENZA: COMPARING LINGUACULTURAL AND SENSORY ACCESSIBILITY PRACTICES Federica Alabiso
119	4.1 Introduction
121	4.2 A definition of museum accessibility
122	4.3 Paper overview
123	4.4 Legislation on cultural heritage accessibility in Italy
123	4.5 An overview of Italian museums' accessibility
125	4.6 Sample and data

129	4.7	Data analysis and comparison
130	4.7.1	Linguistic accessibility
130	4.7.2	Sensory accessibility
131	4.7.3	Comparison with official data on accessibility in Italian museums
132	4.8	Conclusions
134		References

SECTION II: Resistance Practices to Waste and Tourism for Collective Futures

139	5.	NEW APPROACHES TO A SUSTAINABLE ECONOMY: THE WASTE COOKING OIL CASE Matteo Baldan
140	5.1	Introduction
141	5.2	Method
142	5.3	EU Directive and regulations for WCO
145	5.4	The example of waste cooking oil
147	5.5	Properties and chemical composition of waste cooking oil (WCO)
150	5.6	Waste cooking oil as oleochemical feedstock into valuable products
150	5.6.1	Main industrial uses of waste cooking oil
152	5.6.2	Polyurethane synthesis from waste cooking oil
153	5.6.3	Waste cooking oil as an asphalt rejuvenator
153	5.6.4	Biosurfactants derived from waste cooking oil
154	5.6.5	WCO-Derived additives for polymers
155		References
159	6.	ART'S UNCOMFORTABLE ANSWER: RETHINKING TOURISM CIRCULARITY THROUGH WASTE Chiara Carolina Donelli, Linda Armano, Elena Mazzi
160	6.1	Introduction
163	6.2	Paradox in tourism
166	6.2.1	The paradox of the sustainable business model in the tourism industry

168	6.3	Contexts of research, methodology, and findings
168	6.3.1	Contexts of research
170	6.3.2	Methodology
174	6.3.3	Findings
186	6.4	Discussion
192	6.5	Conclusions
193		References
199		GRAPHIC INSERT: LIVING LABS
217	7.	CREATIVE AND ARTISTIC INTERVENTIONS FOR SUSTAINABLE TOURISM Valeria Bruzzi
218	7.1	Tourism, culture, and creativity: moving towards an integrated ecosystem for territorial innovation
221	7.2	iNEST Cross-cutting activities 2: Lab Village for the Tourism, Culture, and Creative Industries
224	7.3	Art-based approaches and art tourism: emerging paradigms for alternative collective concepts for geographical areas
226	7.3.1	Lab Village: pilot actions and ongoing experi- ments
227	7.3.2	Focus: Pilot Action I – cultural prototypes for mountain tourism
233	7.4	Conclusions
237		References
239	8.	STAGING CRAFT: DOING ART-BASED RESEARCH ON STEREOTYPES AND AUTHENTICITY IN VENICE Margherita De Luca, Camilla Ferri
240	8.1	Introduction
241	8.2	Theoretical background
241	8.2.1	Stereotypes in Tourism
242	8.2.2	Authenticity in Tourism
245	8.2.3	Craft as a stage for authenticity

247	8.3	ABR: not research on art, but through art
249	8.4	The ABR case study: Artisanal Intelligence - Frullatorio Show
249	8.4.1	Introducing the artists: Frullatorio
250	8.4.2	Co-creating the Show
252	8.4.3	The Show
255	8.5	Key insights
256	8.5.1	Unveiling day-to-day practices beyond the stereotypes
257	8.5.2	De-contextualizing craft narratives
258	8.5.3	Bringing forward new instances and voices
259	8.6	Conclusions
261		References
265	9.	BETWEEN PROXIMITY-BASED SOCIAL INNOVATION AND TOURISM: INITIATIVES OF MICRO-REGENERATION IN THE PO DELTA AND POLESINE REGION Olga Tzazadaki
266	9.1	Social innovation in tourism
266	9.1.1	An introduction – Tourism Innovation
268	9.1.2	Social Innovation in Tourism
272	9.2	Methodology
274	9.3	Case study: the Po Delta and Polesine region
274	9.3.1	The context – overview and tourism profile
277	9.3.2	Results - Collaborations
281	9.3.3	Governance and local administration
284	9.3.4	Cultural missions: personal and collective
288		References
293		ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
297		punto org book series