

Index

Preface 7

Part 1

Science and knowledge, sovereignty, artificial intelligence and digital public services

LUCA BUSCEMA, Science and knowledge, technological innovation and cultural processes in an advanced society 11

ELENA GIRASELLA, Redefining sovereignty: the rise of artificial authority and the crisis of constitutional values 39

LAURA PERGOLIZZI, Digital public services: the key role of accessibility for innovative simplification of public administration 57

SANTA DE MARCO, The use of artificial intelligence in tax law: limits and perspectives between tradition, modernity and post-modernity 73

Part 2

Artificial intelligence and languages

MARY ELLEN TOFFLE - ELYAR POURAKBAR GAUGANI, Artificial Intelligence and Cultural-Linguistic Endangerment 89

PAOLA LABADESSA, Pedagogical experiences of Français Langue Étrangère from “Computer Assisted Language Learning” to “Artificial Intelligence” 117

Part 3Artificial intelligence: sociological and psychological perspectives

SILVIA CARBONE, The educational process: time/space from modernity to post-modernity	145
TINDARA CAPRÌ - GIULIA PICCIOTTO, Social Empathetic Cognitive Robotics for Autism (SECRA): a protocol design	157
ERIKA SMERIGLIO, New Paradigms of Artificial Intelligence in Alzheimer's Disease: A Psychological Perspective	175
Contributors	207