

INDEX

Purpose of the Research	11
--------------------------------	----

INTRODUCTION

1. The origins of the phenomenon of third party litigation funding	15
2. The spread of third party litigation funding in systems of common law	17
3. Particularly in international investment arbitration and in commercial arbitration	22

CHAPTER I

THE STUDIES THAT PRECEDED THE PROPOSED DIRECTIVE

1. The European added value assessment on the Responsible private funding of litigation and the attached study by the Research Office of the European Parliament	31
1.1 Introduction	34
1.2 The litigation financing contract	36
1.3 The TPLF market in the European Union	37
1.4 Procedure for the conclusion of the contract	38
1.5 The issue of conflicts of interest	39
1.6 The protection of defendants	42
1.7 The relationships between the parties	43
1.8 The funder's compensation	45
1.9 Code of conduct for funders	46
1.10 Conclusions	47
2. Study on Mapping Third Party Litigation Funding in the European Union	48
2.1 Brief considerations	48

CHAPTER II
THE DISCIPLINE DICTATED IN THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT RESOLUTION OF SEPTEMBER 13, 2022

1. The regulatory framework and objectives behind the Resolution and the proposed Directive	51
2. The main recommendations covered by Resolution	54
3. The legal nature of the litigation financing agreement	55
4. Definition of litigation funder	57
5. The regulation and supervision of funders	58
6. Capital adequacy	61
7. The fiduciary obligation	64
8. On the content of the third party litigation financing agreement	66
9. Transparency requirements and prevention of conflicts of interest	68
10. The cases of nullity of the agreement	72
11. The powers reserved to the Authority	76
12. Responsibility for the other party's expenses	79

CHAPTER III
THE NATURE OF THE FINANCING AGREEMENT

1. Introduction	81
2. The litigation financing agreement as a “litigation quota agreement”	82
3. The different contractual models and their compatibility with the proposed Directive	86
3.1 The loan agreement	89
3.2 The funding agreement as a simple assumption of debt	90
3.3 The funding agreement as an associative-type contract	91
3.4 The assignment of credit for guarantee purposes	95
3.5 The insurance contract	97

4. The admissibility of litigation financing agreements with a managerial cause 98

CHAPTER IV
THE TPLF IN THE UNITED STATES

1. Regulatory framework	107
2. The variability of litigation funding scenarios	110
3. Professional requirements of funders	112
4. Requirements for carrying out financing activities	114
5. Transparency requirements and prevention of conflicts of interest	117
6. Foreign investors	120
7. Cap on funder's profits	121
8. Disclosure obligations	123
9. The main legal doctrines applicable to TPLF	125
10. Recent applications	127
10.1 Saladini v. Righellis case	127
10.2 Case of Rancman v. Interim Settlement Funding Corp.case	128
Conclusions	131
Bibliography	135